Some Sensible Mortgage Strategies for 2010

1. Take advantage of the $1,350 home renovation tax credit; get your renovations done or buy your supplies by Feb. 1, 2010. Renovations may also qualify for EcoEnergy Retrofit Grants of up to $5,000.
2. Prepare for rising rates!
 - If you are buying a new home, don't borrow your maximum amount.
 - Variable mortgage holders may want to consider setting their payments higher to create a cushion.
 - Take advantage of your lender's prepayment options.
3. Change from monthly payments to weekly or bi-weekly.
4. If you're carrying high-interest consumer debt that is eating into your cashflow and racking up large interest costs, this is a great time to use your home equity to pay off those debts.
5. Take a look at re-advanceable mortgages, an excellent way to access equity for investing (tax deductible mortgage) or other needs without having to re-apply.
6. Try not to use credit to get you through a financial emergency. Put a small sum from every paycheque into a special emergency fund.
7. If you're worried that your household income could decline, consider using some of your home equity to build a financial buffer.
8. When you are four months within renewal, touch base with your mortgage planner to discuss renewal options and strategies.

A REALTOR YOU CAN TRUST!

If you're considering buying or selling please call me if you would like a referral to a professional, experienced, trustworthy Realtor. I've dealt with several realtors in the Surrey, Langley/Tri-Cities areas for over 9 years and can guarantee you will be happy with the results from all of these "Over Achievers". Why call a stranger, when you can be referred to a professional I "know" "like" & trust"!

A Fast-Acting Remedy for Your Christmas Debt Hangover.

The downside of last month's festivity and generosity is this month's credit card bills. You may suddenly be looking at some huge balances with no idea how to pay them off. And what's worse, you'll be paying anywhere from 10-20% interest on what you owe!

Fortunately, the solution is close to home. If you've been in your house for a while, you may have enough equity to refinance your mortgage, consolidate your credit card debts, and end up paying mortgage interest in the 4-6% range!

The first step is talking to ME! I can help determine how much equity is available and advise whether debt consolidation is right for you. Even if you have to pay a penalty to break out of your existing mortgage, that cost is usually more than covered by the interest savings of debt consolidation. I'll do the math and show you how much you can save.

The goal of refinancing should be to save interest and get out of debt faster. It's important to understand that you're going to have to change your spending habits—at Christmas and year-round—or you'll be refinancing again before you know it. The best strategy is to use the money you save from consolidation to start a saving plan or to invest in an asset that will generate a return, such as revenue property. LET'S BE WEALTH SPREADERS! (sound familiar)

First and foremost, I have my clients' "best interest" at heart as you are No.1, not the lending institution. I have over 30 years of experience in the business and will always be here for you. I don't get paid unless I do the mortgage as I am not an employee of any bank. Bank employees still get paid whether you use their service or not.

- 1) Guaranteed Mortgage Renewal Rates – I can hold rates up to 120 day in advance whereas your current lender may only provide a 30 Day Rate Guarantee. You may not receive a renewal notice in the mail until about 2 weeks prior to maturity. Tell your friends If they provide their maturity date to me I can also contact them 120 days in advance of their maturity to lock-in their rate. If I provide the better rate than their bank they use my services, if not they stay with their bank. It's a Win Win!
- 2) Pre-approvals 90-120 Days in Advance(dependent on Lender) - I deal with over 50 lenders across the country including all the products they offer. I do not just offer one lender's products!
- 3) Refinancing for all clients from Bankrupt to AAA – I always have a solution for my clients or work with them to create a financial plan to get them back on their feet to qualify in the future.

REFERRAL REWARDS - You help me and I help you with a Gas Card or Store of your Choice - Home Depot, Walmart etc.

How to Reinvent Yourself and Thrive in 2010

If this is the year you want to create a new you—whether that means being healthier, having better relationships, earning more money or leaving behind a non-productive behavior—here’s a proven way to get there:

1. Ask yourself some questions. What’s your special gift or talent? What assistance do people come to you for? What would you do with your life, even if you weren’t getting paid? What would you be, do or have if you knew you could not fail? Uncover your strengths, passions and dreams. This is the first step to a new YOU!

2. Set your goal. Be clear and specific. It’s not just “achieving career success”, it’s “becoming self-employed in the IT field and earning $75,000 annually by the end of 2011”. Make your goal achievable and easy to measure. Don’t just say you want “to lose weight, get fit and look fabulous”, say you want “to lose 30 pounds, be able to swim 100 lengths per week and be in a totally new wardrobe by October 31st, 2010”.

3. Envision how you’ll feel when you achieve it. Imagine how healthy and energized you’ll feel after you’ve been eating fresh, organic food that you prepared yourself. See yourself behind that corner-office desk. Experience the feeling of achieving your goal, and use that energy to keep you motivated.

4. Create a plan to get there. Ask yourself what steps you need to take, then draw up a detailed plan. Focus on making slow, steady progress and getting used to new behaviors. When you experience doubt, re-imagine what it’ll feel like to succeed. Be sure to reward yourself for each step you complete.

5. Fill your mind with successful examples. Spend a few minutes every day reading or listening to stories of people who are already living the life you want to live. This will inspire and motivate you to keep charging forward.

6. See setbacks as opportunities to learn. There will always be failures along the way. But don’t beat yourself up. Analyze what happened and why, and what you could have done differently. Then take a new path that will get you to your goal!

Quotes

“Before you begin a thing, remind yourself that difficulties and delays quite impossible to foresee are ahead... You can only see one thing clearly, and that is your goal. Form a mental vision of that and cling to it through thick and thin.” -- Kathleen Norris
